

MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT AND/OR ALIMONY OF SUPERIOR COURT ORDER

This packet contains forms and information on how to modify a child support and/or alimony order that was originally issued by a Superior Court in Georgia.

NOTE: You can only file a Modification of child support and/or alimony when it has been two years since a judge signed an order for child support and/or alimony unless you can show that there has been a material change in circumstances.

It is advisable to have an attorney when filing legal papers to be sure that your rights are protected and that all the procedures are correctly followed. Courthouse personnel are prohibited by state law O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51 from giving legal advice. Different situations may require special procedures and courthouse personnel cannot advise you on how to proceed or what forms may be necessary in specific situations.
